

A Few words from Susan Duke...

Knowing we are not alone in our journey through grief is essential. Understanding the process of grief is a vital key to moving forward and coping with life after losing someone we love. Without a ray of hope to light this unfamiliar path, we are often left groping in the dark, wondering if our souls will ever find any resemblance of healing and restoration.

Those of us who have faced the unanswered questions and gripping pain of grief often feel alone in our journey; and desperately need a place where hearts can rest and our tears can find their voice.

Some interesting facts about Susan...

Susan Duke is a wife, mother, best selling author, inspirational & motivational speaker, and singer. A prolific writer, Susan has authored, co-authored, or contributed to 40 plus additional books that will warm your heart, including "Grieving Forward" after the death of her own son.

Susan travels extensively, speaking for Christian conferences, retreats and seminars, corporations, national teacher's associations, community groups, churches of all denominations, and writing conferences. An enthusiastic communicator and true encourager, Susan combines humor, sensitivity, transparency, and poignant biblical truth in all of her messages. Her compelling testimony of God's restoration after tragedy offers a bridge of hope for hurting hearts. Interweaving testimony, teaching, and theme based presentations, Susan's warmth and vivid illustrations bring inspiration and refreshing insight to her audience that leave them filled and empowered with hope, joy, and purpose.

Susan has recorded four gospel albums and was the featured guest soloist for an international radio broadcast reaching fourteen countries on the African continent from 1991-1996.

Susan and her husband, Harvey, reside in their quaint log home in the tranquil woods of East Texas.

Empowering Hearts With Joy, Hope and Purpose!

www.suzieduke.com